CIRCULAR NO. 99

Sub: Pondicherry University – MBBS Degree Programme -
Amendment of the Existing Circular No.50 – Based on the NMC
Regulations – Intimation – Reg.

Ref: 1) Circular No.50 dated 14.03.2019
2) Academic Council Resoln. No. 2022.86.10 dt.18-03-2022.

Maximum duration for completion of 1st year and Final year papers of MBBS Degree.

Taking into account the contents of New NMC Regulations i.e. CBME Regulation (2019-20 batch onwards) stipulate that student should graduate within 10 years of joining MBBS and clear the first professional University Examination within 4 years. In the similar way, University has decided and amended in the existing Circular No.50 with the followings:

- i) The students of 2018-19 batch and prior batches have to clear the First Year MBBS University Examinations latest by December, 2022 and graduate by December, 2028 or earlier, failing which students may have to discontinue the course.
- ii) The students of the above said batches have to pay higher examination fee of Rs.25,000/- per paper for every additional attempt up to the above said time limit, and appear for the University examinations.

The above changes will come into effect from May'2022 session onwards.

This may be brought to the notice of the MBBS students especially those admitted in 2018-2019 batch and prior to 2018-2019 batches.
